PORT OF LOUISVILLE.

ARRIVALS.

Major Anderson, from Cincinnati.
Emma Floyd, from Cincinnati.
Masonie Gem, from Cincinnati.
Allen Collier, from Cincinnati.

J. T. McCombs, from Henderson.
Ella, from Cumberland river.
Woodside, from Cumberland river.

DEPARTURES.

Major Anderson, to Cincinnati.
Emma Floyd, to Cincinnati.
Masonic Gem, to Cincinnati.
Allen Collier, to Memphis.
J. T. McCombs, to Henderson.
Des Moines City, to Nashville.
Ella, to Cincinnati.
Woodside, to Cincinnati.

The river was swelling a little last evening, with two feet ten inches water in the canal. Weather warm and wet.

The prospect is good for a rise in the Ohio, and we hope it will prove sufficient to let out an abundance of coal.

Business yesterday at the levee was rather dull although the arrivals and departures were quite numerous.

FOR CINCINNATI—The Gen'l Buell is the mail boat at noon to-day, and the Major Anderson to-morrow.

FOR HENDERSON—The Havana is the regular Monday packet, and will leave at five p. m.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of yesterday has the following :

The steamer Ingomar started yesterday afternoon for Pomeroy, but ran aground on Licking bar, and was still aground when we left the river.

The convoy arrived from below yesterday afternoon, with three barges in tow—two empty, the other loaded with hay. In making a landing on the Kentucky side of the river, the barge loaded with hay ran on some logs and stuck.

The Cincinnati Commercial of yesterday has the following:

The tugboat, while backing out from the wharf, bound up the river, grounded on the rocks opposite the foot of Main street, but soon worked off and was under way again.

On the downward trip, of the Mayville pack, Shenango, on Thursday, the mate, Mr. Ralph C. bert, of Felicity, Ohio, was accidentally caught between one of the stationary and swinging fenders of the boat and severely injured. He is in a Six prisoners, named Jos. Gilpin, R. J. Langhorn, Moses Daulton, Henry Atherton, Robt. Burton and Joe Davine, who were captured, were taken to the boat, and severely injured. His collar-bone was broken and breast crushed in.

The Nashville Dispatch of yesterday says:

The river is rising at the rate of about two feet in twenty-four hours. By the time this paragraph is read, there will be four or five feet of water upon the shoals, and a fleet of boats will probably have arrived. This may be called the June rise, which will not last long, and there need be no further navigation expected until fall, after the present flood recedes.

The Alton (Illinois) Democrat gives the following account of a

STEAMBOAT RACE—Yesterday evening the steam ers Post Boy, B. M. Runyan and Die Vernon record anchor from the St. Louis wharf at the same time, the first-named getting two lengths the start, and the second about the same of the latter: all three were in excellent trim, and each one well represented with passengers, all confident of success. The race, we are informed by parties on board, was a pretty one, and as either boat attempted to pass was very exciting to the passengers, who manifested great interest in their respective crafts. The Runyan locked her leader three times, but owing to a little lockey-running of the former and lack speed of the latter, was compelled to reoccupy her old position, and she in like turn was locked by her competitor, who was forced to do as the Runyan had done, bring up the rear for want of speed.

We saw them come into port, and a beautiful sight it was, all of them coming in occupying the same distance from each other as when they started. They made good time, coming up in about two hours, which at this stage of the river is quite time. We think it a tie race, and suggest they give them another chance.

BUCKEYE REAPER

All's Well.
The day is ended. I sink to sleep
My weary eyes close in sweet repose;
Father! forgive my trespasses and keep
This little life of mine.
With loving hands curling round my head,
And cool in rest my burning forehead;
Thy pardon be the pillow for my head—
So shall my sleep be sweet.
At peace with all the world, dear Lord, and Thee,
No fears my soul's unwavering faith can shake;
All's well! wherever else the grave for me
The morning light may break.
